Selecting Applicants from the Waiting List

Selecting Applicants

- Families selected for participation in the Section 8 Program are taken from the Waiting List by local preference, starting with the earliest date on accepted preliminary applications. Priority is given to those families with a local preference using the preference system described later in this section so that no family without a local preference is selected before a family with a local preference, admissions of singles that are elderly, disabled, or displaced and families whose head or spouse is elderly or disabled have preference over admissions of singles that are not elderly disabled or displaced.
- When funding is available and assistance can be provided, families on the Waiting List are contacted in writing to inform them of the availability of funding and requested to complete a Tenant Information Form, Authorization Form, and a Citizenship Declaration Form and return the forms to the program office in the envelope provided within fourteen days. Families that do not respond to this letter are removed from the waiting list and given no further consideration. Letters returned as undeliverable because the family has moved and not left a forwarding address are treated the same as families that do not respond.
- Disabled applicants are not removed from the Waiting List until personal contact is made with the disabled person by a program manager to insure that a disabled person is not denied the opportunity to qualify for rental assistance solely due to their disability.
- Public Housing residents may apply when Section 8 list is open. Selections from the waiting list must result in compliance with income targeting requirements. Seventy-five percent of families who are initially leased up during the fiscal year must have incomes below thirty percent of area median (extremely low income) as published by HUD.
- Applicants must be at least 21 years of age and are required to produce a current criminal background check from Nassau County Police Department or other State / Federal Law Enforcement Agency. Applicants with felony drug convictions will not be able to participate in this program until at least three years from time of their release or conviction and the time they are called from the waiting list. Applicants convicted of child molestation will be barred from participation in this program.

Preferences

- Preference in assigning applicants to the waiting list will be based on the date and time of application.
- Preferences are ranked using a residency preference based on the City of Glen Cove residency preference area, defined as the City of Glen Cove where the Section 8 Program is authorized to operate a rental assistance program in accordance with the following system:

First Preference

Applicants who claim a residency preference based on a head of household or spouse who resides in the City of Glen Cove at the time of application.

Second Preference

Applicants claiming a disability and receive Social Security Disability or Supplemental Security Income benefits who resides in the City of Glen Cove at time of application.

Fourth Preference

Applicants claiming a family preference of two or more persons, not elderly, disabled or displaced that resides in the City of Glen Cove at the time of application.

Single Person

Single persons will be given equal preference with all other persons

- The City of Glen Cove does not exercise its discretionary power to assist non-preference families through local preferences, nor does it verify preferences as a requirement for placement on the waiting list. Verification of preferences is delayed until occupancy consideration.

Closing the Waiting List

- When the City of Glen Cove closes its entire waiting list, or any part of its waiting list, public notice concerning the closing of the entire list, or any part of the entire list, will be placed in the daily newspaper used by the Glen Cove Community Development Agency for official notices, and in any weekly newspaper of general circulation.
- Public notice will not be used as the primary vehicle used to notify special groups, such as minorities, the elderly, the working poor, and the homeless, since this can be better accomplished by dealing directly with agencies that work as advocates for these special groups. A list of agencies that will be contacted is provided in Appendix 1 of this Administrative Plan.
- Such notice will comply with the fair housing and equal opportunity requirements of the City of Glen Cove, and Department of Housing and Urban Development requirements.

Reopening the Waiting List

- When the City of Glen Cove opens or reopens its entire waiting list, or any part of its waiting list, public notice that families may apply for assistance will be placed in the daily newspaper used by the City of Glen Cove for Official notices, and in any weekly newspaper of general circulation.
- The public notice will state where and when to apply and state any limitations on who may apply for available slots in the program.
- Public notice will not be used as the primary vehicle used to attract special groups, such as minorities, the elderly, the working poor, and the homeless, since this can be better accomplished by dealing directly with agencies that work as advocates for these special groups. - Such notice will comply with the fair housing and equal opportunity requirements of the City of Glen Cove and Department of Housing and Urban Development requirements.

Single Waiting List

- A single waiting list is used for the voucher program. Additions to the waiting list are always accepted and the City of Glen Cove does not anticipate the need to suspend accepting or processing new preliminary applications or adding new applicants to the waiting list. However, should the need arise to close the waiting list, or any part of the waiting list, procedures already stated in this Administrative Plan will be followed.

Issuing or Denying Vouchers - Terms, Extensions and Suspensions

Issuing or Denying Vouchers

- As part of the selection process, families on the Waiting List are contacted and told that they will be awarded a voucher if their eligibility as stated in their preliminary application can be verified.

- Families that are income eligible, qualify as a family under this administrative plan, and are citizens or nationals of the United States, or eligible non-citizens, are given oral briefings and offered a certificate or voucher.
- Families must submit to or supply proof of a criminal background check for all family members who have reached the age of eighteen (18) years. This Agency prohibits admission to the program any applicant for three years from date of eviction if a household member has been evicted from federally assisted housing for drug-related criminal activity. This Agency also prohibits admission if any household member is currently engaging in illegal use of a drug. This Agency also prohibits admission if it determines that it has reasonable cause to believe that a household member's illegal drug use may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents. This Agency prohibits admission if an household member has ever been convicted of drug related criminal activity for manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of federally assisted housing. This Agency enforces HUD mandatory prohibitions for any member of household is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under a State sex offender registration program. - Families will be issued a Voucher, if one is available. Families may remain on the waiting list in their same chronological order while waiting for a Voucher. Families refusing assistance will be removed from the waiting list, and must reapply if they wish to obtain rental assistance in the future.
- Vouchers are issued until available funding is utilized. Projections of the number of each that may be issued is based on a financial projection model that Uses past program experience and Annual Contributions Contract Reserve to determine the number vouchers that may be issued over a five-year period, given available funding. The projection model is checked each quarter to determine if adjustments are required.
- Vouchers are issued based on family size or unit size if the unit they choose to occupy is smaller than subsidy standards stated elsewhere in this Administrative Plan. Families may be issued smaller Vouchers than size unit they would normally occupy, as long as the standard of two persons per living / sleeping area is not exceeded.
- Families may also choose to occupy larger units than indicated by the subsidy standards in this Administrative Plan only in emergency cases, and where there is no known abuse of housing subsidy such as unauthorized persons occupying said units, but the maximum subsidy will always be limited to the Fair Market Rent or Payment Standard applicable to the size unit approved by this Agency.

- Such demonstration shall include names and addresses of owners who have been contacted and reasons why potential dwelling units have been rejected. Unless such extensions have the effect of denying other families access to rental assistance, extensions will normally be granted until Voucher holders are able to secure suitable housing.
- Vouchers issued to persons with disabilities will automatically be extended at the holder's request to the full 120 day period allowable under HUD regulations.

Suspension

- The term of a voucher will be suspended from the time when the family submits a request to this agency for approval to lease a unit, until the time when this agency approves or denies the request, provided that each such suspension does not exceed thirty days. No more than three such suspensions will be authorized for a certificate or voucher holder, unless this agency finds extenuating circumstances warranting such suspension.

Portability

- Program rules allow a family to gain admission to the voucher program in one area and then use that assistance to lease a unit in another area.
- An assisted family may lease a unit anywhere in the jurisdiction of the PHA issuing the certificate or voucher (the initial PHA). Also, the family generally may use the voucher to lease a unit in the same state as the initial PHA, in the same metropolitan statistical area (MSA) as the initial PHA but in a different state, in an (MSA) adjacent to the (MSA) of the initial PHA but in a different state, or in the jurisdiction of a PHA anywhere in the country that is administering a tenant-based program. However, if neither the head of household nor spouse resided in the jurisdiction of the initial PHA when applying for assistance, the family has no right to lease a unit outside of the initial PHA's jurisdiction for twelve months, though it may go outside of the jurisdiction with the approval of the initial PHA and the PHA in the area to which the family is moving (the receiving PHA).

- The family must meet the income requirements for the area in which it initially leases a unit. If the family moves to another area and transfers between the certificate and voucher programs, it must be income-eligible for the new program in the area where it leases an assisted unit. No re-determination of income eligibility is required after a move if the family remains in the same program.

Portability Procedures

- The portability procedures for the tenant-based assistance program provide for a sharing of responsibilities between the initial and receiving PHA. The initial PHA will be responsible for determining whether the family is income-eligible for the area where the family wants to lease a unit. The initial PHA must tell the family how to contact and request assistance from the receiving PHA, and the initial PHA must notify the receiving PHA to expect the family.

Tenant's Right to Move

- An assisted family may move to a new unit if the family is in good standing with this Agency (not owing any monies to landlord or Agency), the assisted lease for the old unit has terminated; the owner has given the tenant a notice to vacate, has commenced an action to evict the family, or has obtained a court judgment or other process allowing the owner to evict the family; or the family has given notice of termination of the lease.
- A family may move one or more times with continued assistance, either within the jurisdiction of the initial PHA or to the jurisdiction of another PHA. A PHA may establish policies that prohibit any move during the first year of assisted tenancy or more than one move by a family during any one-year period. These policies may apply both to moves within the PHA's jurisdiction and to moves outside of that jurisdiction.

Administration by Initial PHA

- The initial PHA must administer assistance for a moving family if the unit to be leased is located within the same state, the same PHA, or an adjacent PHA and no other PHA with a tenant-based assistance program has jurisdiction over the area. To allow the initial PHA to continue to administer the assistance in areas outside of its jurisdiction, federal law and regulations on portability preempt any jurisdictional limits under state and local law. The initial PHA may use another PHA, a private management entity, or another contractor or agent to help administer assistance outside of its jurisdiction.

Administration by Receiving PHA

- When a family moves outside of the jurisdiction of the initial PHA, the receiving PHA must issue a certificate or voucher to the family if it operates a tenant-based assistance program. If there is more than one such PHA with jurisdiction in the area to which the family is moving, the initial PHA may choose the receiving PHA.
- The receiving PHA generally has the option of issuing the family either a certificate or voucher. However, if the family initially received a certificate or voucher and is ineligible for admission to the other program in the receiving area, the receiving PHA must continue assistance under the same program if it is administering such a program.
- The receiving PHA must determine the appropriate family unit size for the incoming family. The term of the certificate or voucher issued to the family may not expire before the expiration date of any voucher or certificate issued by the initial PHA, and the receiving PHA will determine whether to extend the term. The family must submit a request for lease approval to the receiving PHA during the term of the certificate or voucher issued by that PHA.
- The receiving PHA will perform all program administrative functions, such as reexaminations of income and family composition. Either the initial PHA or the receiving PHA may make a determination to deny or terminate assistance.

Billing

- The receiving PHA may absorb the incoming family into its tenant-based assistance program, using funds under its consolidated ACC. or it may bill the initial PHA for housing assistance payments and administrative fees. HUD may transfer funding for the incoming family to the receiving PHA from the initial PHA's ACC., provide additional funding to the initial or receiving PHA, or require the receiving PHA to absorb the incoming family.
